

2024 – 2025 Media Kit

Founded in 1928, the Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology (ARVO) is the largest and most respected eye and vision research organization in the world. ARVO serves an international membership of nearly 10,000 members in 70 countries.

From basic research scientists to clinicians, ARVO is the ideal forum for you to engage and impact global clients and prospects. Connect with faculty and clinical staff at universities, medical colleges, teaching hospitals, private practices, clinics and managed care practices. Marketing with ARVO allows you to reach eye and vision investigators at private research facilities, in pharma and other related companies, at community or government hospitals and government agencies.

Why market with ARVO?

- ARVO is globally-recognized and respected as a leading provider of quality content and research
- Members rely on ARVO for ground-breaking technologies and industry trends that advance their areas of research
- ARVO's Annual Meeting is the industry's premier gathering place for information exchange and networking

Members by area of interest

Members by region of residence

Members by Professional Focus

ARVO journals are fully open access and online only, allowing unrestricted access to their content by anyone from anywhere, unlike subscription journals that restrict access to authorized users. They are internationally recognized for their quality and are affiliated with ARVO, the most prestigious international eye research organization. All three journals are listed in all major citation databases (Web of Science, SCOPUS, PubMed, etc.) and all have received Impact Factors.

Investigative Ophthalmology & Visual Science | iovs.arvojournals.org

Launched in 1962, IOVS had been publishing the highest quality basic eye research for the last 60 years emphasizing original clinical and laboratory hypothesis-based research with statistically valid results that clearly advance knowledge of the normal and abnormal processes impacting vision. The scope of IOVS is broad, covering the research interests of all 13 ARVO Sections and has published over 25,000 articles and 120,000 Annual Meeting abstracts.

- 2022 Impact Factor of 4.4; the most cited ophthalmology journal
- Exposure 2,206,940 views from June 1 – Dec. 1, 2023, monthly average 367,823*
- 345 articles published in 2022

Translational Vision Science & Technology | tvst.arvojournals.org

Launched in 2012, Translational Vision Science & Technology (TVST) complements IOVS by publishing translational research that bridges the gap between basic research and clinical care. TVST recently expanded its scope to include all stages of clinical trials, as well as studies focused on outcomes and effectiveness of clinical practice in communities. After receiving its first impact factor and introducing the expanded scope in 2020, TVST more than doubled its annual number of published articles.

- 2022 Impact Factor of 3.0
- Exposure 204,147 views from June 1 – Dec. 1, 2023, monthly average 34,024*
- 346 articles published in 2022

Journal of Vision | jov.arvojournals.org

The Journal of Vision (JOV) is devoted to all aspects of visual function in humans and other organisms. Its scope overlaps with ARVO's Visual Psychophysics/Physiological Optics and Visual Neuroscience Sections, but also with our sister Vision Science Society. JOV was pioneering in 2001 in its adoption of online only publication and all electronic processing. It is respected for hands-on datasets and models that users can easily manipulate online, as well as for the quality of its science.

- 2022 Impact Factor of 1.8
- Exposure 498,654 views from June 1 – Dec. 1, 2023, monthly average 83,109*
- 159 articles published in 2022
